MONDAY

02/17/14[1] FILM REVIEW

Jockey JOEL ROASRIO rode here yesterday and was represented by Jockeys' Guild Representative DARRELL HAIRE and retired jockey CHRIS McCARRON in the review of two races. In both cases, we believed that Mr. Rosario was riding the line of carelessness and being too aggressive. Mr. Haire acknowledged the mistakes and will relay our impressions and warning to Mr. Rosario.

Jockey BRICE BLANC came to the office to review his ride in the sixth race yesterday after which his mount was the subject of an inquiry. Films revealed that while his mount did drift out slightly, he quickly corrected the drift and therefore deserved a warning.

02/17/14[2] ACCIDENT/BREAKDOWN/9TH RACE

#4 HE'S NOT TOO SHABY broke down at the sixteenth pole on the turf course while racing last, unseating jockey ALONSO QUINONEZ. The horse was euthanized but Mr. Quinonez appeared to be uninjured (accident report attached).

FRIDAY

02/21/14[1] ROUTINE MORNING

All matters were routine this morning.

02/21/14[2] OBJECTION/NO CHANGE

Following the running of the first race, jockey TYLER BAZE aboard third place finisher #4 PASSION BUCKET, claimed foul against the winner #1 MARLA HOOCH (I. Orozco) for interference in the stretch. It was Mr. Baze's assertion that Mr. Orozco drove his mount between horses without sufficient room. While we agreed, we did not think the move cost Mr. Baze the opportunity at a better placing. After speaking with the patrol judges and riders involved, we voted unanimously to make no change to the original order of finish.

SATURDAY

02/22/14[1] FILM REVIEW

Apprentice jockey IRVING OROZCO came to the office as directed this morning to review his ride in the first race yesterday after which his mount was the subject of a jockey's claim of foul. Films revealed that Mr. Orozco guided his mount into the space between horses with marginal room at best and caused some bumping among his rivals. The majority felt that there were some other factors that caused the interference but Steward CHANEY strongly dissented and voted for three suspension days.

Jockey TYLER BAZE was called to the office to get his further input into the first race yesterday after which he claimed foul. He asserted that although his horse wasn't cooperating fully he would prefer that Mr. Orozco ride less aggressively.

02/22/14[2] COMPLAINT WITHDRAWN

Veterinarian MELINDA BLUE withdrew her complaint against owner JOHN COLETTI when they agreed upon a contract to resolve the financial complaint (case number 13PM0004).

02/22/14[3] INQUIRY/NO CHANGE

We posted the inquiry sign after the ninth race to examine the circumstances under which #5 ANZEAU (B. Kelly, trainer) broke extremely slowly. Films revealed that the horse simply stood there when the gates opened; this was confirmed by Starter JAY SLENDER. Therefore we declared the horse to be a starter.
