FILM REVIEW; INQUIRIES SEVENTH & NINTH RACES ref 03-01-14 (4&5)

Apprentice jockey DRAYDEN VAN DYKE met with the Stewards to review two races yesterday that involved his mounts in two inquiries both at the start. Mr. Van Dyke stated that in the seventh race he lost his mane hold, balance, lost an iron, kicked the other one out and the outrider pulled him up. The second time, he said he again lost his balance, fell back on the horse's mouth, gathered himself and finished the race. Mr. Van Dyke has won twenty races and has not had any issues until now. He did state this was the first time he had ridden in the rain; he wore gloves in the seventh and took them off for the ninth.
