CHRB NEWS RELEASE

APRIL 23, 2003

SECURITY ENHANCED FOR SAN FRANCISCO MILE

SAN MATEO, CA – California Horse Racing Board investigators and racetrack personnel will be providing enhanced security Saturday for the $200,000 San Francisco Breeders' Cup Mile in order to ensure the highest integrity for the only Grade II race of the meet.

The CHRB will post security personnel at the stall of every horse entered to run in the Mile beginning several hours before the race. This will require the racing association to provide security personnel to work with CHRB investigators.

“We appreciate Magna (Entertainment Corp.) giving us this assistance,” said CHRB Chairman Roger Licht. “This joint effort demonstrates our commitment to providing adequate security in the backside to ensure the integrity of the game.”

CHRB investigators have been providing additional security for all major races in California, including the Grade III El Camino Real Derby at Golden Gate Fields.
