Saturday11/29/08 (1) Stewards Call Meeting

At the request of the stewards, an informal meeting was called and conducted today in the steward’s office. The topic of the meeting could have been labeled 'Practicing Veterinarians Claiming Racehorses-Perception and Ethics'.

The horse "Art's Clown" finished first and was claimed for $3,750 out of the first race Saturday, November 22nd. Frank Petrelli was the winning trainer and his horse was claimed by the partnership of Trainer Rocky Stidham, Cliff Shurman, and Hot Flash Racing. Private standardbred veterinarian Audrey Clifton is the sole entity of the stable name "Hot Flash Racing". Dr. Clifton was the track veterinarian last summer for the 2008 California State Fair.

Trainer Frank Petrelli phoned the stewards in a somewhat enraged state following the claim November 22nd. He subsequently filed a protest (California Horse Racing Board Rule #1755) with California Horse Racing Board Supervising Investigator Greg Fabbri. Before the stewards finished their conversation with Petrelli, he stated that Dr. Clifton (Hot Flash Racing) personally examined "Art's Clown" at one time. The protest disputing the claim was subsequently dropped early the following week.

The meeting in the steward's office included Audrey Clifton, D.V.M. (Hot Flash Racing), Trainer Rocky Stidham and California Horse Racing Board Veterinarian Robert Goodbary. Dr. Clifton categorically denied having ever examined the horse "Art's Clown". Dr. Clifton said she performed only limited work for Trainer Petrelli in the past. The stewards told Dr. Clifton there was no rule against veterinarians owning racehorses, however in this Board of Steward's experience; we don't recall veterinarians claiming horses.

A protest hearing in this matter could have been interesting as to what constitutes an 'unfair advantage' in the claiming of racehorses. The stewards and California Horse Racing Board Veterinarian Goodbary went over written and unwritten rules regarding professionalism and the real or perceived occasional paranoia surrounding the 'claiming game'. The stewards don't anticipate matters related to these in the foreseeable future.

11/29/08 (2) Sires Stakes Finals

Four (4) California Sires Stake Finals were contested on tonight's fifteen (15) race card. Two (2) year old pacing and trotting divisions for colts and fillies all carried purses of $25,000.

11/29/08 (3) Third Race – Inquiry

The stewards posted the inquiry sign immediately following this race to observe individual 'breaks' made by third place finisher #5 "Lodi Cooper" (Lemoyne Svendsen) and fourth place finisher #1 "Try This" (Gilbert Garcia-Herrera).

Race replays show both #5 "Lodi Cooper" and #1 "Try This" 'lose ground' following their individual breaks. This complies with California Horse Racing Board Rule #1722 (Breaking). No change was made in the order of finish.
