1/21/12 (2) Film Review/ Driver James Lackey

Driver Lackey who drove #5 “Blissful Kassie” in Friday’s 5th race was observed “Off the Gate” and “Crossing Over Before the Start” was represented by his associate Fern Wald Mr. Lackey observed via cell phone.

Mr. Lackey contended that weather and track conditions severely hampered visibility and his main concern was safety.

In a majority decision (Steward Baker dissenting) the Stewards issued the following ruling citing a single rule violation. Steward Baker felt there were two (2) violations and this fact as well as Licensee’s recent driver record these should have been addressed independent of each other.

1/21/12 (3) Race #5 Claim/Shake

There were two (2) claims for #7 “Folk In The Road” the shake was won by Owner Lilli Tremblay for Trainer Natalie Tremblay.

1/21/12 (4) Race #11 Recall/Inquiry/Disqualification

The initial attempt at a start resulted in a “Recall” when Starter Bill Vallandingham was of the opinion that #9 “Cladstowimpression” (Scott Cisco) interfered with #6 “Lakers R Electric” (Quentin Schneider).

The second attempt at a start was successful.

The Stewards posted the “Inquiry” sign to review an incident that occurred as the field passed the half mile marker, when eventual 2nd place finisher #3 “King Carver” (Tony Succarotte) broke stride causing confusion among the trailing horses while “Off-Stride”.

In a unanimous decision the Stewards disqualified #2 and placed him 9th for interference while “Off-Stride.”

Driver Succarotte was held blameless in the incident.

1/21/12 (5) Race #12 Inquiry/Disqualification

The Stewards posted the “Inquiry” sign to review an incident which occurred past the half mile marker when eventual 3rd place finisher #4 “Take No Prisoners” (David Siegel) was observed to be in close quarters with #9 “The Future” (James Lackey).

After reviewing video and speaking with the drivers concerned the Stewards unanimously concluded that #3 had “Pulled Late” Causing #9 to check and cost #9 “an opportunity at a better placing.” Thus #3 was disqualified and placed 9th for interference with #9.
