Report for the period Wednesday, May 20, 2009 through Monday, May 25, 2009.

Wednesday05-20-09¹ CAL-BRED REPORT

Purse $9,700. For California bred or California sired three year olds, claiming price $5,000 at a distance of one mile. The race was called off after only one horse was entered in the race.

05-20-09² JOCKEY/TRAINER OBJECTION – Fourth Race – NO CHANGE

Jockey Jorge Ayarza, rider of third place finisher #4 EE TO KINZIE, lodged an objection against the first two finishers, #5 JULES J (1st, Frank Alvarado) and #3 MISS HIGH SOCIETY (2nd, Alex Bisono), for alleged interference at the start. In addition to Mr. Ayarza's objection, trainer Armando Lage lodged his objection against #5 and #3 for alleged interference in the stretch.

After talking to Mr. Ayarza once he had unsaddled and reviewing the recorded views of the start and stretch run, the order of finish was made official.

The incident at the start could not be assigned to one specific horse as each horse contributed to the contact to some degree; therefore, no change in the placing was warranted.

As to the trainer's objection of alleged interference in the stretch, the recorded views showed nothing that supported his objection.
