RUSSELL BAZE - FILM REVIEW

Jockey Russell Baze was in to review Sunday's 4th race for an incident going into the seven eighths turn. The race was a six horse field with five of the horses involved in the jam up.

After reviewing all of the recorded views and listening to his analysis and explanation no sanction was issued. The vote was a majority. Steward McHargue voted for days. The majority held the opinion that numerous factors contributed to the incident and, therefore, Mr. Baze was not solely responsible. Steward McHargue was of the opinion that although there was a horse outside that influenced his horse had Mr. Baze made a concerted effort to straighten his course more room would have been given to the inside horses.

02-05-15⁴ JOCKEY PEDRO TERRERO – FILM REVIEW
Mr. Terrero was also in to review Sunday's 4th race seven eighths incident. After re-viewing all of the recorded views Mr. Terrero was held blameless as his portion of the incident was blamed on the actions of his mount.

The ruling listed above was issued after Mr. Herrera and trainer Tony Diaz met and re-viewed the race with the Stewards. Mr. Herrera failed to offer an excusable reason for his failure to straighten his mount after it started drifting out while a left hand whip was being applied.

After talking to the riders involved and reviewing the recordings of the incident the numbers posted were made official. The vote was a majority as Steward McHargue cast a dissenting vote.

The recordings show #4 drift out and force #5 into #6 causing #5 to lose momentum and position after that horse was checked by its rider. The majority held the opinion #5 was racing in third place at the time and its placing was not affected as it ended up in placing in that position.
