SUNDAY
03/06/11¹

BAFFERT MEETING

Trainer Bob Baffert joined the stewards to discuss his attempt to phone the Stewards during the inquiry of the Santa Anita Handicap. Mr. Baffert, approximately ten minutes into the inquiry, went to the telephone to communicate his assessment of the race to the Stewards but was informed that we didn't take such calls or analysis. This morning, he was informed that this practice is not one we want to promote and it is the standard practice of the Stewards after an inquiry has been initiated that only the opinions of percipient witnesses (i.e. jockeys) is permitted. Mr. Baffert stated he understood our reasoning and will refrain from doing so in the future.

APPRENTICE INTRODUCTION

Richard Aguilar, an Apprentice Jockey from Peru, along with his uncle, exercise rider Pepe Aragon, met with the Stewards to discuss what is needed for him to attain a license in this country. He was directed to first obtain an exercise license and when he has the proper documents from Peru he will hopefully be fit and ready to ride.

BAROCIO HEARING CASE #11SA055

The applicable CHRB rule for this case is 1876 (Financial Responsibility). In attendance were groom Jesus Ospina, who filed the complaint against Mr. Barocio and trainer Barocio himself. The complaint alleged non payment of wages. Safety Steward Luis Jauregui and Investigator Rick Amieva sat in as observers. Mr. Ospina stated he was paid $1,200.00 but is still owed $500.00. Mr. Barocio produced an agreement signed by himself and owner Vichien Chattong aka “Vic” stating that Vic Chattong was responsible for all debts for his horses while stabled with Mr. Barocio. Mr. Barocio grooms one of the horses himself and the rest were under the attendance of Mr. Ospina. The signed agreement prompted an invitation for owner Vic Chattong to join everyone already mentioned with the hopes of attaining some kind of agreement among the parties involved. It was decided Case #11SA055 against Mr. Barocio be dismissed after Mr. Chattong verified he did sign the document mentioned earlier. Mr. Ospina was directed to file a financial complaint against Mr. Chattong for the alleged wages owed.

03/10/11²

CHATTONG HEARING CASE #11SA056

In a related matter, this case involves CHRB rule 1877 (Checks) which was filed by the CHRB. Mr. Chattong issued a check for $300.00 to groom Jesus Ospina for the care of his horses while in the barn of trainer Librado Barocio. The bank refused to cash this check due to non sufficient funds. Mr. Chattong stated he stopped payment of the check after he became dissatisfied with Mr. Ospina's performance at the barn. The time lines of all actions appear to be fuzzy and all parties agreed that a formal hearing would be appropriate to make a decision on this case. This case will be filed simultaneously with the new filing of the financial concerning Mr. Ospina. (see above)
