(2) FILM REVIEW

Jockey Alex Bautista was asked to explain why his mount from last evening's fourth race ducked in sharply and made hard contact with the horse to his inside. Alex informed us that the horse ran in a different bit than her last race and he had very little control. In the video review it was determined as plausible and that also the horse to his outside bumped him in. No suspension was given.

Trainer Valentin A. Zamudio appeared to answer this complaint regarding a bute overage (3.6 ug/ml) that was his first offense and under the 5.0 ug/ml limit, which qualifies for an official warning. Mr. Zamudio offered that the horse may have been treated later than usual since post is early on Sundays. He does not train off of bute and only has the vet do injections to race. This Board of Stewards gave an official warning per California Horse Racing Board Rule #1843.3 (e) (First Offense). We told Mr. Zamudio to be very careful in the future as he will not get another warning.

Present at this hearing were the complainant Alan Cobham, representing Centaur, his Los Alamitos agent Vince Smith, the respondent Vod Farris and Mrs. Farris, with the Board of Stewards, George Slender, James Dreyer, and Randy Winick. This was an informal affair which allowed both sides to state their cases. (2) FILM REVIEW

Jockey Santiago Mendez was in to review his ride on the winner of the ninth race from the previous evening. Santiago rode #8 "Feature Malinche" to victory in the "La Pacifica Handicap," however the Stewards called him in to reprimand him for allowing his mount to drift in needlessly several lanes, in what was a poor effort to keep his mount straight. Santiago said his horse was lugging in pretty severely, however he acknowledged he could have done a better job in keeping her straight. The Stewards gave him a strong warning to make a better effort in the future.

(3) FOURTH RACE – INQUIRY – NO CHANGE

The Stewards posted the Inquiry sign following the running of the fourth race (Thoroughbred – 4½ furlongs) to review a bumping incident approaching the 1/16 pole between a stopping #1 "Milano Connection" (8th – R. Guce) in between #5 "Lateral Transfer" (4th – C. Charlton) to his inside and #3 "Poker Dave" (5th – G. Boag) and #2 "Friendly Hays" (6th – V. Bednar) to the outside. After reviewing the taped replay and talking to the riders involved, the Stewards unanimously decided to make no change to the original order of finish. The replay shows that the eighth place finisher #1 was stopping badly and was partly to blame, causing some interference while he was stopping as well as bumping with #5 to his inside who came out slightly. The bumping with the horses to his outside and inside did not rise to a disqualification, as he was on the way to being well beaten.
